Quilts of Honor Presentation

The veterans at Muldraugh Hill Baptist Church were honored on Veterans Day, November 11, 2018, in a special recognition service. Eight veterans were presented quilts by Chris Goodhue, a representative of the Quilts of Honor organization. According to their brochure, "The mission of Quilts of Honor is to bestow a universal symbol and token of thanks, solace, and remembrance to those who serve in harm's way to protect and defend our lives and freedoms. Quilts of Honor are made by the loving hands of countless volunteers who wish to thank those who have served and to honor their service and sacrifice." Each quilt presented was made in patriotic colors of red, white, and blue. There was a Quilt of Honor label sewn in place with the following details: the name of the recipient and his/her service rank; and the name of the person(s) who pieced, bound, and quilted the quilt. Each quilt had a branch of service patch sewn next to the Quilt of Honor label. The eight veterans honored were: Ernest Carol Taylor, Howard Farris, Tom Moore, Mickey Yates, David Mays, Jim Sabo, Sr., Jim Bob Moore, and Robert Farmer.

Chris Goodhue and Bro. Billy Compton

Ernest Carol Taylor

Howard Farris

Quilts of Honor Presentation

Continued

Tom Moore

Mickey Yates

David Mays

Jim Sabo, Sr.

Jim Bob Moore

Robert Farmer