The minutes were recorded as follows by the church clerk, Charlotte Benningfield:

Bro. Billy Compton called the meeting to order.

The minutes stood approved as read.

Treasurers Report stood approved as presented by Andrea Morrison.

Committee/Department Reports

Sunday School: Josh Veatch reported Sunday School resumed six weeks ago, with an average December attendance of 90. A new class taught by Donnie and Josh Veatch is available for anyone who would like to attend.

W.M.U.: Sue Ann Compton reported $3,110 has been collected for the Lottie Moon Offering. An offering of $6,371 has been collected for tornado victims, Darryl and Amanda Dye and J.D. and Jessie Newton.

Security: Josh Veatch reported the next meeting will be Jan 27th at 6:00 p.m.

Vision 24: Josh Veatch reported the group met last night, and are ready to start moving forward. More information will be forthcoming in the next few months.

Deacons: They met last week with all deacons present. They want our Church to move forward in 2022. A tent revival is being planned for September. They have no recommendations.

Unfinished Business: None

New Business:

Josh Veatch discussed the need to notify members by 7:00 a.m. if services are cancelled, due to our 9:15 service. If services are cancelled a On Call will be used and it will also be on social media.

Bro. Billy informed us that the Deacons have discussed the Committee Handbook, and we will have an orientation for committee members on Sunday, Feb. 13 to choose a chairperson, organize, and set meeting dates.

The monthly Birthday/Anniversary Calendar is in the process of being updated. This info needs to be entered into Servant Keeper.

Jim Sabo made a motion to adjourn. Second by Mark Speer. Motion carried.
