The Treasurer's Report was approved as read by Andrea Morrison.

Committee/Department Reports:

Sunday School: Josh Veatch reported a 102 average for November. This is an increase of 6 from October. We are now in the Winter Quarter literature. There will be no Sunday School on Christmas Day and New Year's Day.

Youth: Cameron Edwards is planning a party for the youth on Dec. 18 and plans for the New Year. He will attend the Youth Conference sponsored by the KBC and will preach in Bro. Billy's absence on New Year's Day.

W. M. U.: We are collecting the Lottie Moon Missions Offering with a goal of $3,500. So far, $303 has been given.

Music: Kathy Snow reported nineteen participated in the Christmas Cantata. The choir will resume practicing on January 15th.

Trustees: Nothing to report.

Transportation: Sam Graham reported checking the bus on Monday, and it is ready for any group to use.

Security: Sam Graham reported they are providing security during worship services and that doorbells have been installed. The Security Office is presently under renovation. They enjoyed a fun-filled party and meal on Dec 2 with Wanda Buckler hosting.

Children: Tiffany Underwood reported there will be a Children's Christmas Party this Friday from 6:00 – 9:00 p.m.

The new curriculum chosen is Orange.

They are creating a rotation team of nursery workers. There will be a T.V. installed that will live-stream the service.

Renovation: Don Veatch reported the Sanctuary flooring has been installed along with painting. Work is being done to fix cracks in the drywall in ceiling of Fellowship Hall. The audio/video is 90-95% complete. Work continues on the upstairs restrooms. While we plan to return to the Sanctuary for services in mid-January, it will not be complete, with wood work/trim still to be installed.

Deacons: Adam Bland reported all the deacons were present for the meeting. Bro. Billy was absent due to sickness. They have no recommendations.

Personnel: No report.

Unfinished Business: None

New Business:
