

Introduction and Synopsis

Welcome to Muldraugh Hill Baptist Church and our musical drama entitled, “The Ornament”. It is the wish of the choir and cast of performers that we provide you with warm-hearted entertainment that presents a Christian message that is inspirational and encouraging.

I’d like to share a little background of the performance to set the mood. The Christmas season is filled with a myriad of emotions and family dynamics. This is the story of the Keagans. Henry Keagan has recently begun to deal with the passing of his wife. Adjusting to the loss of the matriarch of this close-knit group is met with various reactions. Henry’s children and grandchildren had decided to gather together to support their dad and granddad during this time of great sorrow, and to continue some of the yearly traditions they hold dear. The story will take you on a journey, revealing many perspectives of each character. There is a great deal of humor, a trip to a soup kitchen, carolers at the door, and tremendously thought-provoking spiritual insight. The main messages of this musical drama are that, while circumstances in our lives may change, the one constant we can always depend upon is found in the love, grace, and presence of the Lord, Jesus, and that God is always faithful to lead us through the unique journey He has for each of us.

Now, I present to you, “The Ornament”.
